COMTRAWINGFIVE NOTICE 1650

Subj: AWARDS FOR TOP GRADUATES AT WINGINGS

Ref: (a) 5 CFR 2635.204(d)

1. Purpose. To announce Commander, Training Air Wing (TRAWING) FIVE guidelines for awards given to the top graduates from each service at each Winging.
2. Discussion. Finishing flight training as the top graduate is an honor and distinction meriting recognition for their achievement. Top graduates may be presented with an award not to exceed the threshold amount of $200 as listed in reference (a).
3. Action. Commander, Training Air Wing FIVE approves the awarding of nominal gifts from outside entities to the top graduate from each service - United States Navy, United States Marine Corps, and United States Coast Guard based upon their Advanced training composite scores. Students may accept the gift as an award for their excellent performance during flight training. Acceptance of the gift from non-Federal entities does not constitute endorsement of the donor by Training Air Wing Five, Chief of Naval Air Training, or any of the United States Armed Forces. In addition, the awards ceremony may not be used as a means of promotion by the donor.
4. Cancellation: The awarding of gifts from non-Federal entities to the top graduate from each service at each Winging is approved for the duration of this notice which is cancelled for record purposes on 1 June 2013.
